

Week #1	Anatomy Revisions on articles Classroom vocabulary	Week #7	Pharmacology Lexicon and phraseology of prescriptions, medication labels and instructions
Week #2	Pain and symptoms Prepositions, adjectives Describing pain (“mal”) Passive	Week #8	Hospital structure Hospital vocabulary Revising forms of address
Week #3	History taking Asking questions, formal (adults) and informal (children)	Week #9	Healthcare systems (1/2) Cultural comparisons between France & UK Country-specific vocabulary and phrases
Week #4	Clinical examination Imperatives Direct and indirect object pronouns	Week #10	Healthcare systems (2/2) + revisions
Week #5	Diagnosis Expressing hypothesis and doubt	Assessment #1	Oral examination: pre-prepared generalist medical consultation done in pairs, questions from the class
Week #6	Treatment Modal verbs	Assessment #2	Writing examination: summary of a semi-authentic technical text into layman’s terms, assessed on content relevance and language accuracy

Newly-designed syllabus for a 5-week LSP course: Language for _____

Week #1	Topic for the week + skills practised: Teaching approach / activities:
Week #2	Topic for the week + skills practised: Teaching approach / activities:
Week #3	Topic for the week + skills practised: Teaching approach / activities:
Week #4	Topic for the week + skills practised: Teaching approach / activities:
Week #5	Topic for the week + skills practised: Teaching approach / activities:
Assessment #1		Assessment #2 (optional)

Level: A1 A2 B1 B2 C1 C2 (circle as appropriate)